

Homework

All our children follow a set homework pattern on certain evenings of the week. Homework is important and we have tried to organise homework so that the children still have time during the week to follow other activities in which they might be interested. We encourage all our children to take reading books home on a regular basis and ask that you, as a parent, help your child by trying to listen to him/her read whenever you can. Parents can also request additional work when a child is undergoing a long period of absence.
